Mauritius

Enjoy relaxing days on Mauritius. On the island western and eastern culture meet and have intertwined to a fascinating and colourful mosaic. In addition to long sandy beaches and fascinating landscapes, the island offers several golf courses that make many golfer's hearts beat faster. In the following we have summarized our suggestions for a stay in particularly beautiful houses on the coast of Mauritius for you.

One&Only Le Saint Géran, Northeast Coast

On the sunny and quiet Belle Mare Peninsula on the northeast coast of Mauritius, the Resort One&Only Le Saint Géran is located directly on an over 1,5 km long white sandy beach. Tropical gardens with countless coconut trees, a swimming pool landscape and restaurants overlook the sea and characterising the image of this resort. The total of 143 rooms and suites are divided into different categories, which differ mainly in their location within the hotel and the view. The room offer also includes more spacious Junior Suites and Suites. The Suites have a second complete bathroom, which is adjacent to the living area. The sofa in the living area of the Suite can be converted into a bed. In all categories there are rooms with connecting doors. The completely private Villa One has two en-suite bedrooms and offers a spacious, private retreat with its own swimming pool, private chef and butler. The resort spoils its guests in currently four restaurants with different cuisine and ambience. The culinary offer is rounded off by three bars offering snacks and refreshing drinks. The spa offers eight treatment rooms, a sauna and an extensive range of optional body and facial treatments. In addition, there is a dedicated fitness team, which provides various activities in the fitness centre. The sports facilities of the hotel are completed by 3 swimming pools and 3 tennis courts. Optional water sports available at the resort include water skiing, snorkelling, kite surfing, diving, stand-up-paddling, kayaking, sailing and fishing. A mini-golf course, guided mountain bike tours, the 5-km morning run, table tennis, beach soccer, beach volleyball and large outdoor games such as Jenga, chess and bowling are also part of the resort's repertoire. For children between 4 and 17 years there are various play and entertainment possibilities.

Royal Palm, Northwest Coast

Located on a beautiful white sandy beach on the northwest coast of Mauritius, the Royal Palm is a tranquil tropical harbour, symbolising harmony between luxury and sophistication. It is considered as one of the noblest hotels on Mauritius. All 87 suites have a view of the sea and have air conditioning, safe and minibar as well as an en-suite bathroom with shower and separate toilet. For couples, we recommend a Tropical Suite of approx. 70 m² plus 15 m² private terrace. The Garden Suites with a size of 115 m² plus the private terrace of about 25 m² are well suited for families, as these have a second bedroom with private bathroom. Known for its exceptional cuisine, the Royal Palm invites to a tempting culinary experience in one of its three restaurants. At the Royal Palm Clarins Spa guests can relax and unwind. Natural materials such as lava stone, granite, wood and slate integrate into the environment and reflect a strong visual expression. The design blends in with the interior and exterior spaces arranged around a free-flowing pool and its generous sun deck. Amidst the lush vegetation are the spa cabins, each decorated according to a different theme. A separate yoga area is located in a thatched pavilion next to the entrance. The Royal Palm offers a wide range of land and water sports that guests can enjoy during their stay. The sports centre offers yoga, cardio, tennis, squash and much more. The water world of the Indian Ocean could be explored during snorkelling. In addition, kayaking, sailing, windsurfing, water skiing and excursions by speedboat are optional. For those interested in diving, the Diving School of the sister hotel Le Mauricia is located opposite and is used by guests of Royal Palm. Alternatively, you could also use the Diving School of the sister hotel Trou aux Biches Resort, which is a about 20-minute-drive away.
