Dear Travel Agency Partners, dear clients,

Thank you very much for your interest in our tailor-made travel arrangements to Southern and Eastern Africa. We are delighted that you are planning your next journey to Africa.

The choice is enormous, and the possibilities seem endless. The internet is undoubtedly an impressive tool for gathering information. It showcases more choice of accommodation and yet often less clarity to make a firm decision. What are the suitable areas and accommodation for your personal Africa journey? And how do you know what and whom you can trust?

This is exactly where we would like to step in. We have been travelling in our destinations for more than 25 years. We value and appreciate the reliability and professional co-operation of our local partners just as much as exceptional qualities of accommodation, guides, service or cuisine. We know about the advantages of certain reserves and the most customer-friendly logistics. You can rest assured and trust that your holiday organisation is in excellent hands with us.

Your journey is equipped with the highest possible added value by incorporating our many years of experience as well as also giving details the appropriate importance. At the end of the day, the small details make the big differences.

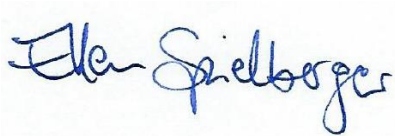

Tourism in Africa leads to impressive places. Places, that combine safari with all kinds of comfort. Places, that reveal the vastness of nature and places, that allow proximity to people and wild animals. It is a luxury that allows us, as travellers, to forget about time. A luxury that invites us to immerse ourselves in nature, to relax and enjoy special moments that remain in fond memories for a long time to come.

Our fulfilment is when you return happy and relaxed from your carefully organised journey to Africa. When you are already thinking about when your next journey to Africa may take you back to wonderful and selected places.

We look forward to organising your journey to Africa for you. We know our long-standing local partners personally, some of them for more than 25 years. Our common goal is for our customers to enjoy unique holiday moments. Moments that they also gladly remember with a smile even years later.

We would love to hear from you so that we can design and organise your Africa journey according to your preferences.

Our very best wishes,

Yours Ellen Spielberger and your committed Bush Legends Team

A special welcome to Africa. Savour the moments.
